Saturday is Glove Day!

Its importance is accentuated by the fact that it is announced by the Greatest Glove Store of Richmond.

Among the hundreds who will crowd the Glove Counters, most of these have been buying our Gloves for many/years and KNOW that this is a store that spares neither pains nor expense in securing THE BEST OF THE GLOVE WORLD'S PRODUCTIONS.

Our policy is one that eliminates entirely all Gloves of doubtful quality, no matter how well the goods appear or how "tempting" the seemingly low price of the unscrupulous dealer who offers them may be. Years ago the Miller & Rhoads Glove Store set the standard for Richmond, and to this day it has been too high to be followed successfully by any other. This store is supreme.

H. Deasy, a detective in the employ of the railway company.

It seems, from stories told by both sides, that a railroad tie had been placed across the tracks just before a passenger train was due to arrive. Carter said that he was attracted to the place by the call of a white mand his wife, who were just about to cross the railroad tracks. They pointed the tie out to him, and, according to him, he removed it just in time, the train passing by a few moments later. "Cyclone" (T. H.) Samuels, who shot and killed his son on the night of September 29, was indicted for the crime yesterday by the grand jury of the Henrico County Circuit Court. The jury wished to return a true bill of second degree murder, but Commonwealth's Attorney Gunn insisted upon the first degree.

It is practically certain that Samuels, who is now held in the County Jall, will never be placed on trial. He has retained counsel, and they will pedition the court for a lunacy commission to examine into his sanity, and there is little doubt but that he will be committed to an asylum.

These charges are to the effect that immoral conditions prevailed at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute at the last session, and that when the situation was presented to President Barringer, he did not take what were regarded as active steps looking to its suppression. It is further charged that a tremendously large number of furloughs have been granted to cadets to to Roanoke and attend plays, with results that were largely demoralizing:

Perhaps the most serious accusation brought is that under Dr. Barringer's regime the standard of truth is not high at the institute, and that the shonor system is to a great extent a failure.

Dr. Barringer was called over the long distance telephone last night at Blacksburg, and asked regarding the charges made against him. He declined to make any statement at this time further than to say that at the proper time the charges and reflections on the cadet corps and on him would be proved false and malicious.

When L. E. Johnson, rector of the visitors, was asked about the matter in Roanoke last night, he made this written statement:
